OneMain Financial Team Members Deliver Stuffed Animals to Military Children

More than 900 Battalion Buddies distributed to children with a parent in 1st Brigade Combat Team

Fort Bragg, N.C. – Feb. 17, 2020 – OneMain Financial team members recently distributed stuffed animals to children of deployed servicemembers as part of an Operation Gratitude volunteer event.

The team members, from OneMain’s Spring Lake branch, hand-delivered a Battalion Buddy – branded bears that were stuffed by grateful Americans across the country – to children with one or more parents in Fort Bragg’s 1st Brigade Combat Team. Volunteers also made paracord survival bracelets, which provide seven-and-a-half feet of cord in an emergency, for servicemembers. The event took place on Saturday, Feb. 1.

The event was part of OneMain’s company-wide commitment to supporting Operation Gratitude. OneMain, the country’s largest lending-exclusive financial company, has partnered with Operation Gratitude since 2018 and proudly awarded the nonprofit with a $30,000 grant in 2019.

About Operation Gratitude

Operation Gratitude is the largest nonprofit in the country for hands-on volunteerism in support of Military, Veterans, and First Responders. Since 2003, the organization has delivered more than 2.5 million Care Packages and has provided opportunities for countless Americans to forge strong bonds with their Military and First Responder heroes through volunteer service projects, acts of gratitude, and meaningful engagements in communities nationwide. In 2019 alone, more than 1 million volunteers participated in 10,000 Operation Gratitude Service Projects nationwide. Operation Gratitude is uniquely positioned to bridge the civilian-service divide. We believe that the best way to forge strong bonds and build bridges between grateful Americans and their military and first responder heroes is through actions in communities nationwide.
